BANGOR WHIG.

BANGOR, MARCH 6, 1839.

WHIG NOMINATION FOR MAYOR.

J. WINGATE CARR.

WHIG MEETING.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Bangor at the Court House, on the evening of the sixth instant, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Mayor, for the ensuing year, Nathaniel French Esq., was chosen Chairman, and Isaac S. Whitman Secretary. The following communication from R. Dwinel Esq., declining a re-election, was read by Hollis Bowman Esq., Chairman of the City Committee.

Bangor, Wednesday March 6, 1839.

GENT. Permit me through you, to express to my fellow citizens generally, my deepest gratitude for their kindness and support in the discharge of official duties entrusted to me by them. Allow me to request, Gent., that you will at the same time inform them that I must respectfully decline being considered a candidate for re-election.

I trust you will appreciate my motive in requesting public notice of that which I have frequently had occasion to say in private.

I am, Gent., very respectfully your obedient servant,

RUFUS DWINEL.

To Messrs. Hollis Bowman and others, Whig Committee.

The following Resolution, expressive of the views of the meeting, was then offered by John S. Sayward Esq.

Resolved, That the Whigs of Bangor, mindful of the important and active services rendered by Rufus Dwinel Esq. in the performance of his official duties, hereby tender him their sincere thanks, for the honorable and satisfactory manner in which he has discharged the various obligations devolving on him, as Mayor of this City for the past municipal year, and in retiring from the responsibilities of office, he bears with him their best wishes for his future welfare and prosperity.

The Resolution was unanimously adopted.

The meeting then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Mayor, for the ensuing municipal year.

The following Resolutions, offered by Moses L. Appleton Esq. were warmly received, and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the manifestation of the true Whig spirit of 76, by the people of Maine, in relation to the North Eastern boundary, and we pledge ourselves to stand by our State and by our Rulers, in every determined and constitutional effort to maintain and enforce the unquestionable rights of Maine to the possession and jurisdiction of the territory described in the treaty of 1783.

Resolved, That as citizens of Maine, we highly appreciate the prompt and patriotic alacrity with which our citizen soldiers hastened to defend the integrity of our soil from threatened invasion; and should continued aggression require, we have full confidence that the army of the Aroostook would be found foremost in protecting American rights and American citizenship.

Resolved, That while we view with honorable pride, the zeal and enthusiasm of the Whigs in sustaining the rights and honor of the State, and that in so doing they are carrying out the great principles which they have so long advocated, we would at the same time admonish them in the midst of excitement, to remember the landmarks of their political faith, and to stand nobly by their country, and the principles on which its liberties depend.

Resolved, That we are determined to persevere in support of WHIG MEN and WHIG MEASURES until the corruptions and defalcations of the present office holders are exposed, and honest men take the place of official plunderers and swift-footed Sub-Treasurers.

The whole number of votes thrown for a candidate for Mayor, was 251, as follows: For J. WINGATE CARR, 175 ABNER R. HALLOWELL, 60 Scattering, 16.

Whereupon, J. WINGATE CARR, Esq. was declared duly elected as the Whig candidate for Mayor, to be supported at the coming election, and the following Resolution offered by H. Bowman, was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we unanimously approve the nomination of J. Wingate Carr, Esq. as the Whig candidate for Mayor of this city, for the coming municipal year, and knowing his moral worth, integrity of character, and the purity of his principles, we will give him our warm and united support, and using all honorable means will elect him on Monday next.

The following gentlemen were chosen a City Committee for the ensuing year.

☞ We place to day, at the head of our paper the name of J. WINGATE CARR, Esq. who was nominated with great unanimity by the Whigs of Bangor as their candidate for Mayor, at a very full caucus on Wednesday evening. Mr. CARR is too well known, to need any commendations from us. He is a gentleman who is highly and deservedly esteemed by his fellow citizens, and is in every respect qualified to perform the duties of the office, we have not the least hesitation in averring, with honor to himself and benefit to the city.

☞ The detachment of Militia from the Orrington division, arrived at Augusta on Tuesday night, and the detachment from Cumberland, reached Hallowell on Wednesday evening.

☞ The correspondent of the N. Y. Express, writing at Augusta A. M. March 4, writes, "Last night the President nominated Chas. Jarvis to Minister to Russia. Cushing was nominated Chief Justice. The Pensioners were not nominated. Civil Department. The Bill creating an office at a salary of $6000 per annum.

GEORGE EVANS OF MAINE

"Pulchrum est bene facere reipublicæ: etiam bene dicere haud absurdum est."
Sallust. Catali. Cap. 3.

It would be almost criminal in us, conducting as we do, a paper of wide circulation, in one of the most interesting sections of this State, to omit some notice, at this time, of the peculiar services of the Representative in Congress from Kennebec, in relation to the deeply absorbing question that now agitates the whole country. He has nobly stood up, throughout, for the honor, the rights, and the character of Maine, during the discussion of that vitally interesting question. Assiduous in bringing up the subject on every proper occasion, discreet in the measures he has uniformly recommended for the settlement of these difficulties, firm in maintaining the right of his State to be heard upon a question so momentous to her interests, uncompromising in the vindication of her conduct, when he viewed and could prove it right, and yet not labouring to pick out, and endeavor to repair the consequences of her occasional indiscretion, in the management of this matter, [illegible] her honor, [illegible] his exertions to put, and to keep her in the attitude of right, before the eye of the world, Mr. EVANS has, almost literally, for years, borne the whole brunt of the battle, the whole burthen and heat of the day, in this controversy. In his place, upon the floor of the house, he has turned aside from this, his self-set task, only to vindicate the people and the institutions of the North against illiberal sectional attacks, and otherwise to subserve the peculiar interests of his immediate constituents, and has kept this paramount question prominently before his eye, has studied it in all its bearings, has made himself its master, has urged its prompt and proper settlement upon the government with all the force of convincing argumentation and persuasive eloquence, and has, we repeat, done it all, nearly unaided, and almost alone, so far as one branch of the National Legislature has been concerned.

We would be just to the rest of the Maine delegations in Congress. We would not deprive one of their number of the meed which we cannot justly withhold, while reviewing the nearly uniform manner in which, when action of any kind has been permitted in Congress, upon this great question, they have shown themselves ready to meet the crisis. They have done their duty. But we must be permitted, still to ask, whose voice is it that has been ever heard, the promptest to speak, the most eloquent to attract and to interest, and the most powerful to convince, upon this matter, ever since the failure of the Preble negotiation, and down to the present time? And who from Maine has met this particular pending exigency, with a promptitude, a dignity, a firmness, a zeal, and a discretion too, that have, at length brought the question to a crisis, which must eventuate in a final settlement of it? "Who was there to speak for Logan" if this Representative had not been in the National Councils? We would not, we repeat, be in the least invidious, or unjust to others, but sheer justice to the subject of these remarks demands that we should say thus much.

And we appeal to the reader. Is there a man in Maine, who has watched the course that things have taken, with regard to this dispute about our boundary line, during the last eight or ten years, who can for a moment doubt, that, had the appeals, the arguments, the monitions, the warnings, the predictions, the assurances, the exertions of GEORGE EVANS, on the floor of the House, been heeded by the Government, and the action which he advised, the measures which he suggested, the policy which he recommended, been pursued, the whole of this vastly important matter would long ago have been settled? For ourselves, we cannot resist the conviction of the truth of this proposition, which is forced upon our minds by a recurrence to the records of Mr. E's whole public course, during that time: and without in the least detracting from what is due to others, we do not hesitate to declare it as our opinion, that, when all the mists of Party shall have been dispelled, and all that foul and false medium of Prejudice, which Political strife exhales, (like the pestiferous fog of the Pontine marshes,) to color and pervert, if not indeed, incurably to blind, the beholders' vision, shall have passed away, and the horizon of History shall be left clear and unclouded, the name of GEORGE EVANS of Kennebec will be seen shining brightest in the zenith, as that of

"THE MAN WHO MET THE CRISIS!"

☞ CAUTION. The Belfast Journal in its eagerness to save the President from the phials of wrath which the people were prepared to shower upon him, tells some outrageous untruths in regard to the course pursued by Mr. EVANS and other prominent Whig members of Congress. Mr EVANS, as well as Mr. Williams, said MAINE would not be satisfied with Mr. Van Buren's recommendation. The Journal has neither common honesty, common sense, or common decency, and is in the lowest depths of locofocoism. The editor seems utterly incapable of telling the truth even when the force of circumstances would generally render it impossible to do otherwise.

☞ Speaking of a special Embassy to England, the New York Express says:

"Already efforts have been made, we understand, by the friends of Gov Marcy to give him the appointment, and undoubtedly his name will stand high at Court. It is very certain a much worse appointment might be made."

☞ We were sized of the Kennebec [illegible] speech [illegible]

☞ Gen. Scott and Suite arrived at Augusta on Wednesday evening.

[Correspondence of the Whig & Courier].

WASHINGTON, March 2, 1839.

To day, we have had two only points, (up to the hour of noon,) in Senate and House. In the House, the Maine Matter. In the Senate, Executive Business. In the Senate Mr. Kendall sent in his "apology" for his impudence of yesterday. No order was taken on it. Of course, nobody will dare think or say that it is not all right! In the House, Mr. Saltonstall and Mr. Cushing made explanatory speeches, on opposite sides, in this Maine controversy, and were followed by Mr. Adams, who went into the defence of the part taken by Maine, with more even than his usual zeal, and with all his accustomed eloquence and ability.

He went "the whole" for Maine; vindicated her course to the last point of her action in the matter; maintained that not only the original right to the Territory in dispute was clearly Maine's, but that her present attitude was noble, praiseworthy, soaring above merely petty party politics, the unanimous action of a free state, taken in view of danger, desolation, suffering, and distress, entitling that State to the admiration and veneration of all true hearted American citizens. He was sorry to see that the President "regretted" the position assumed by Maine; he did not regret it. He admired, he venerated, he applauded, he went heart and soul with her in the attitude she had assumed. His vote should maintain her in that position. The RIGHT was clearly with her. And yet members talked of rashness and indiscretion! She had "armed as one man" in the cause: there was no dissentient voice: she had appropriated an enormous sum to carry on the war, if necessary: and had acted, a free and sovereign State, unanimously, in this matter, and for what? TO DEFEND HER TERRITORY, HER RIGHT IN WHICH WAS UNDISPUTED BY ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. He did not think her rash or indiscreet. Quite the contrary. He should esteem her cause to the last day of his life as most patriotic, noble, and praiseworthy. Here was evidently a delusion under which the British Government, (so far, at least, as the Governor of New Brunswick was the exponent of its views,) labored with relation to what had been conceded by us, as to the jurisdiction in this matter. It was incumbent on us to remove this delusion, whether affected or real. This new step was a new experiment on the part of the British government. New "delusions" would thus be introduced: new experiments thus attempted. They should be met and refuted in advance. The tendency of this was to that effect.

Mr. Adams paid a most warm and eulogistic compliment to the course of Mr Evans, in this. He called his arguments "unanswerable," and sustained his views in every particular.

Some remarks from Mr Legare, in explanation, were followed by a speech of some length from Bell, against the bill, as not now necessary, the exigency, in his opinion, having passed.

A recess then took place.

Should anything interesting occur before the mail goes off to-night, I will dispatch a Post script.

Yours, &c.

A GOOD JOKE.

P. S. During one of the pauses of this exciting debate, Mr. Wise rose, and asked Mr. Cambreleng if he intended to bring in "The Sub-Treasury Bill," at this session? What a roar of laughter! Cam's face assumed the appearance of a Sebago trout's back; so red in spots and [illegible]! Says he "if there's time!" Much virtue in an "if!"

P. S. Midnight. The Maine Defence Bill is a law. Vote in the House 201 to 6. In the Senate unanimous.

The Bill authorizes [illegible] of the service of 50,000 volunteers, and places $10,000,000 at his disposal.

WASHINGTON, Midnight of Sunday. March 3d, 1839.

THE EXPIRATION OF THE TWENTY FIFTH CONGRESS.

At four this morning, both houses, by concurrent votes, adjourned, to meet to-day at ten. Recess as usual, from three till half past four.

Business, and not debate, was the order of the day. The calendar was gone on with, in regular order. A good deal of business was done.

The Speaker made his parting speech as usual.

And the 25th Congress expired, at the hour of its Constitutional limitation.

I shall sketch you the "closing scene" as soon as I can possibly write out my accumulated notes.

Yours truly.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, March 1, 1839.

Extract from a letter received at this Department from the United States Consul at St Pierre, Martinique, dated February 7th 1839.

"I have to inform your honor that in consequence of the recent disaster, the Governor and Council have been pleased to throw open the ports of this island for the next six months on all kinds of bread stuffs and building materials, free from duty.

"Also, the colonial duty on molasses is withdrawn for the like period of time, making molasses come about one dollar less on a hogshead than heretofore."

The following bill introduced by Mr. Tallmadge has passed both houses.

A bill to abolish imprisonment for debt in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the U. S. That no person shall be imprisoned for debt in any State, on process issuing out of a court of the United States, where, by the laws of such State, imprisonment for debt has been abolished; and here, by the laws of a State, imprisonment is only allowed, under certain [illegible] applicable to the process in mesne of the courts of the United States, and the proceedings shall be had therein as are allowed in the courts of such State.

LAW FOR THE DEFENCE OF THE UNITED STATES.

AN ACT giving to the President of the United States additional powers for the defence of the United States, in certain cases, against invasion, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he hereby is, authorized to resist an attempt on the part of Great Britain to enforce, by arms, her claim to exclusive jurisdiction over that part of the State of Maine which is in dispute between the United States and Great Britain; and, for that purpose, to employ the naval and military forces of the United States and such portions of the militia as he may deem it advisable to call into service.

Sec. 2 And be it further enacted, That the militia, when called into the service of the United States by virtue of this act, or of the act entitled "An act to provide for the calling forth of the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, repel invasion, and to repeal the act now in force for those purposes," may, if in the opinion of the President of the United States the public interests require it, be compelled to serve for a term not exceeding six months after the arrival at their place of rendezvous, in any one year, unless sooner discharged.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the event of actual invasion of the Territory of the United States by any foreign Power, or of imminent danger of such invasion discovered, in his opinion, to exist before Congress can be convened to act upon the subject, the President be, and he is hereby, authorized, if he deem the same expedient, to accept the services of volunteers, and to raise an additonal regiment of dragoons or mounted riflemen," approved May 23, 1836.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That, in the event of either of the contingencies provided for in this act, the President of the United States shall be authorized to complete the public armed vessels now authorizing by law, and to equip, man and employ, in actual service, all the naval force of the United States; and to build, purchase, or charter, arm, equip and man such vessels and steamboats on the Northern lakes and rivers whose waters communicate with the United States and Great Britain, as he shall deem necessary to protect the United States from invasions from that quarter.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the sum of ten millions of dollars is hereby appropriated and placed at his disposal for the purpose of executing the provisions of this act: to provide for wich the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow money on the credit of the United States, and to cause to be issued certificates of stock, signed by the Register of the Treasury, for the sum to be borrowed, or any part thereof; and the same to be sold upon the best terms that may be offered after public notice for proposals for the same: Provided, That no engagement or contract shall be entered into which shall preclude the United States from reimbursing any sum or sums thus borrowed after the expiration of five years from the first of January next; and that the rate of interest shall not exceed five per cent, semi-annually.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the sum of eighteen thousand be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for outfit and salary of a special minister to Great Britain: Provided, The President of the United States shall deem it expedient to appoint the same.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That in the event of either of the contingencies provided for in the first and third sections of this act, the President of the United States shall be authorized to apply a part not exceeding $1,000,000 of the appropriation made in this act to repairing or arming fortifications along the seaboard and frontier.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That whenever militia or volunteers are called into the service of the United States, they shall have the organization of the Army of the United States, and shall receive the same pay and allowances.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, that the several provisions of this act shall remain in force until the end of sixty days after the meeting of the first session of the next Congress, and no longer.

JAMES K. POLK, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
WM. R. KING, President pro tem. of the Senate.
Approved, March 3, 1839.
M. VAN BUREN.

If we understand the "protocol" between Mr. Forsyth and Mr. Fox, it is a virtual admission on the part of our administration, that the Government of New Brunswick is to exercise exclusive jurisdiction over the disputed territory, until the question shall be settled by negociation, which, to use a vulgar phrase, will probably be "the next day after eternity." "Her Majesty" will not ask to expel by arbitrary force, the armed party from Maine, but the Government of Maine will withdraw this armed force from the disputed territory! What is this but commanding Maine to give up the territory in question to the entire control and possession of her arrogant and avaricious neighbor? Maine ought not to withdraw her armed force; and if the Union will not sustain her rights, she will be justified by patriotism, equity and common sense, in sustaining them herself. Having taken her stand, as she has, on ground that cannot be assailed by any decent argument, she will be false to herself if she retracts an inch, or withdraws a man from the boundary. If the administration choose to continue the non-committal policy, and play the servile coward to Great Britain, let her take her quarrel into her own hands; she will have at least the good wishes of a majority of the people if Government should forbid their active interference, and she will finally come off victorious, unless like a "lily-livered dolt," she submits to be cajoled and cheated by further negociation.

The captain of the Clarion, [illegible] the rumor was circulated in Havana, from several circumstances; one, that a Bremen brig had arrived the day before from Vera Cruz; another, that the French Consul at Havana had received sending fresh provisions to the squadron. THE BEST MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

THIS best medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Lung complaints, Hooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side, Liver Complaint, and affections of the breast, is Mrs. M. N. GARDINER'S INDIAN BALSAM OF LIVERWORT, containing the strength of many roots and herbs. Among the number are Liverwort, Elecampane, Boneset, Asclepias tuberosa, Iceland Moss, Squills, Hyssop, Rata graveolens; also many other herbs not to be procured in this part of the globe. For the last ten years this valuable Balsam has been in extensive use in most of the principal towns in the Northern States, and, by the persuasion of those that have tested its efficacy, the Proprietor has made arrangements to furnish the druggists of this place, that all may avail themselves of this remedy, before the disease gains so seated that no medicine will reach it. Its effect on obstinate coughs is truly wonderful, and the following individuals voluntarily give their names as among the number who have proved its efficacy. From the knowledge of the materials, and the favorable effect upon our patients, where we have prescribed the above Balsam, we recommend it to be a valuable medicine for what it is recommended.—Calvin Ellis, M. D., Williamstown, M. D., Vice President of the Massachusetts Medical Society.—Also, see certificates on the direction, what astonishing cures it has effected for A. Webster, Boston, Horace Gray, Esqr., Mr. Thos. Haskins jr., Boston, Elisha Boston, firm of Baker & Hopkins, Boston, David Woodbury, clerk of Josiah Stickney, Miss L. Howard. Thousands of others could be named, where it is best known. As a security against counterfeits, each direction will be signed by the Proprietor, M. N. Gardner. Proprietor's residence 19 Washington Street, Boston, where all orders can be addressed. Also observe on the bottle, impressed in the glass, the name Mrs. M. N. Gardiner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild; in Portland, by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm. W. Lincoln, and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wepd4taw6w oct 23

It is now to be found in all the principal towns throughout the United States.

GENUINE BUFFALO OIL.

THE HAIR! THE HAIR! THE HAIR!

THE greatest ornament to the human body is a splendid head of hair. It has recently been discovered that the genuine Buffalo's Oil is a sovereign remedy for baldness, prevents the hair from coming off, promotes the growth, continues the luxuriance, and improves the beauty. It is far superior to any other animal or vegetable oil, and in case of fever, when the hair becomes dry and begins to fall off, there is no application more effectual in restoring its beauty and rendering it in a healthy state

It is put up at a low price, (37 1-2 cents) that all classes can have access to it. None genuine unless put up in flat bottles, with Hiram Cutler's name pressed in the glass. Also, to prevent imposition, it will be signed by the Proprietor, Wm. Brown, 481—Washington, corner of Eliot Street, Boston.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild. In Portland by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm W. Lincoln, and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wepd4taw6m oct 24 1838

VALUABLE CERTIFICATES.

EVAN'S CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS.

THE DIFFERENCE.

IT cannot be denied that whilst many medicines which are recommended to the public, have not even the negative merit of harmlessness, there are others which it would be great injustice indeed, and suicidal prejudice to involve untried, in a common condemnation. And when a medicine comes endorsed with all the great names that have adorned the annals of the medical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform success, its proprietor makes no unreasonable demand upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a superior consideration.

The Camomile Preparation by Dr. Wm. Evans is undeniably entitled to this enviable distinction, for whilst no medical authority in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, freely acknowledges its pre-eminent virtues and that the latter should do so in opposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their candor and love of truth, or to their unwillingness to fly in the face of all observation, and the testimony of thousands.

Dr. W. Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cure all diseases. He frankly and conscientiously admits that they will not. He lays no claim to the discovery of the "Philosopher's Stone," and wishes nobody to believe that he sells the "Elixir of Life," but he does say, and he does believe, and he can prove, that in debility and impaired constitution; in nervous diseases of all kinds; in weakness of the digestive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs or the liver; in the dreadful debility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palsy, rheumatism, (more especially) in the sickness incident to mothers, and to females of relaxed nerves; in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance; in the wretched horrors of body and mind which accrue from occasional inebriety; loss of appetite, languor, melancholy, pains in the head, limbs, or side; in corrupt sallow, and uncomely complexion, caused by the bad state of the fluids in all these cases, and in others mentioned in the bills of directions given with his medicines, HE DOES SAY, that the Camomile Tonic Pills, interchanged occasionally with his Aperient Family Pills, (the best known) which are sold with them, will effect immediate relief; and if used but for a fair period of trial a perfect cure. This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimonies which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr. W. Evans can conscientiously request confidence. He therefore need only add that his Camomile Tonic Pills, together with his excellent Family Aperient Pills, can be obtained wholesale or retail, at No. 7, Division street near Chatham-square, N. York, and his authorized agents in town and country.

Other and more conclusive demonstrations of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Camomile Preparation and Aperient Medicines, are submitted by the following important and extraordinary cures effected by their highly medicinal qualities; all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm. Evans' Medical Office, No. 7, Division street. One or two of these he herewith respectfully gives to a discriminating public.

Dr. Wm. Evans Sir, be pleased to receive the thanks of one who has been a great sufferer for several years, for the great benefits she has received from the virtues of your inestimable Camomile Pills. She has suffered with pain and distress in the head, a lightness across the head, a lightness across the stomach, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart; exercise would almost overcome her; but since using your Camomile Tonic Pills, her complaints are removed she is able to exercise without fatigue, and she is happy to say, can enjoy life comfortably again.

Newark, July 18, 1836 Dear Sir, for four years I have been so unwell that I was unable to attend to my business, and for the last 4 or 5 months was confined to my room, my complaints were rheumatism, pains in my stomach, indigestion and loss of appetite, with continued pain and dizziness in my head; I used different kinds of medicines without effect; until I commenced taking your invaluable Camomile and Aperient Pills; their beneficial effects upon me astonish all who knew my situation. In a few days I shall be at your office to express my gratitude to you in person. In the mean time I subscribe myself your most obt. serv't.

B. S. JARVIS, 15 Centre st.

Dr. Wm. Evans.

Extract of a letter from Jonas Snyder, Postmaster, Knoxville, Pa. to Dr. Wm. Evans. Among several cases "an elderly lady who had been 25 yrs. afflicted with nervous hypochondria, debility, &c. that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician, but the pressure and pain on her heart and breast, and especially in her left side, remained immovable, attended at long intervals with weakness in her head and on her mind keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing. In May she commenced using D. W. Evans' Camomile and Family Aperient Pills, according to the direction accompanying them. A reaction took place; the pains and pressure in her body was removed, her mind became clear and strong; her spirits perfectly good, and up to this time is in all respects restored to health, which for the last 10 years she has not enjoyed."

Sept 2, 1836 JONAS SNYDER.

ON LOW SPIRITS. Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined. Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen technically called hypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriasis.

SYMPTOMS. The common corporeal symptoms are flatulency in the stomach or bowels, acrid eructations, costiveness, spasmodic pains, giddiness, dimness of sight, palpitations, and often an utter inability of fixing the attention upon any subject of importance, or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage. Also languidness; the mind becomes irritable, thoughtful, desponding, melancholy and dejected, accompanied with a total derangement of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit an infinite diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

CAUSES. A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse, or exercise, a dissolute habit, great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, or long continued eruption; relaxation or debility of one or more important organs within abdomen, is frequent cause.

TREATMENT. The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, to strengthen the body, and to cheer the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals and pleasant conversation. The bowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient. We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end, than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills—being mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleansed, his inestimable Camomile Pills, (which are tonic, anodyne, & anti-spasmodic) are an infallible remedy, & without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Some physicians have recommended a free use of mercury but it should not be resorted to; as in many cases it will greatly aggravate symptoms.

"PUBLIC OPINION IS SELDOM WRONG." Junius.

PUBLIC OPINION. Public opinion is perhaps the only unerring guide from whose decision there is no appeal, and was there ever such a manifestation of its approval, as there is with Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills? Step by step has the medicine worned itself into favor, in spite of ridicule, derision and scorn. Triumphant has been its progress to its present sphere of extensive usefulness. It has surmounted obstacles before which quackery sinks paralyzed and has gained for itself a reputation which neither Physicians, nor flippant, sordid, counterfeiting apothecaries can ever injure. These charlatans, nevertheless, do assail it with the malignant shafts of their despicable envy, and which rebounds upon themselves with a power each day on the increase, until they themselves will be covered with the slime of their own manufacturing. They can no more injure the reputation of Brandreth's Pills than they can put their hand out of the sun.

"A Gnat with pall'ed fingers to vanish it."

If to discover the cause and nature of disease—if to make a medicine universal in its powers, and universal in its curative effects upon every kind of malady, proved by the cures performed upon thousands of persons, restored to the blessings of health—if to do these things be praiseworthy, then is Dr. Benjamin Brandreth entitled—to the praise of this and each succeeding generation. By the means he points out, chronic infirmities and premature death are prevented. What are the means? Simply Vegetable Purgation, and it is now an established fact that there is no other way by which a REAL CURE can be effected.

John Dorr's County Agency being discontinued by mutual consent, Sub-Agents in Waldo, Penobscot, Hancock and Washington Counties, will hereafter receive their supplies from Mr. JOHN O. LANGLEY, Dr. Brandreth's duly authorized Travelling Agent, or from the New England Office,

How to be secure from Counterfeit Pills purporting to be Brandreth's Pills.

STOREKEEPERS' SECURITY. All persons who are authorized to travel for Doctor Benjamin Brandreth have invariably the power of attorney from him proved before the Clerk of the County of New-York. Without this is exhibited, touch, taste, not handle.

STILL FURTHER, Dr. Brandreth's Travellers never require the money in advance. Dr. B's terms being: Medicine to be paid for when sold.

SECURITY TO THE PUBLIC. Observe that the certificate is dated this year, Eighteen hundred and thirty eight, in figures, and see that such figures are engraved, not written.

Inquire whether the power of attorney was seen when the Pills were left, &c.

All Pills having Wm. Brandreth on the label George Hodgkinson on the edge, are counterfeits, made to Deceive the Public and evade the law, at the same time.

These, and indeed ALL counterfeit Pills, if used according to the direction which accompany my Pills, are calculated to destroy life. They are made by men having no standing or respectability, without habitation or name, perfectly careless of consequences, provided money is obtained. Extract from Dr. B's. address to citizens of U. S.

And be careful to remember that I have never authorized any Doctor, Druggist, Apothecary or Peddlar in the U. S. to sell my pills. These contemptible persons universally sell counterfeits, and that all Tradesmen who are made agents, have each of them a copper-plate certificate of agency, signed in writing with a pen by me; and which certificate requires renewal every twelve months, it being no guarantee for more than one year from date observe the date is not written, it is engraved.
